PROPOSED ORDINANCE SUPPLEMENTAL AMENDING SECTION 88 BUILDINGS, DEMOLITION OF

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF STAMFORD THAT:

Chapter 88 of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Stamford is hereby amended, as follows:

DEMOLITION OF BUILDINGS

Sec. 88-5. Delay of issuance of building demolition permit.

A. With respect to any application to demolish any building, structure or part thereof, covered under §88-4 above, if a written objection to the issuance of the demolition permit is filed with the City of Stamford Building Inspection Department by any individual, firm, corporation, organization or other entity within fifteen (15) days following publication of the legal notice as required pursuant to §88-4.A above, the Chief Building Official, or his designee, shall delay the issuance of the permit for a period of [ninety (90)] one hundred and eighty (180) days from the receipt of the application, if no objection to the demolition of the subject building, structure or part thereof, is filed within fifteen (15) days of said publication, the Chief Building Official may issue the permit forthwith.

B. If a building, structure or part thereof located within an historic district or designated as an historic property as contemplated by Chapter 97a of the Connecticut General Statutes is to be demolished, no demolition shall occur for [ninety (90)] one hundred and eighty (180) days from the issuance of a demolition permit in accordance with the provisions of §67-147(b) and 7-147y(b) of the Connecticut General Statutes if, during such time, the City of Stamford Historic District Commission or the Connecticut Historical Commission is attempting to find a purchaser who will retain or remove such building, structure or part thereof, or who will present some other reasonable alternative to demolition. During such [ninety (90)] one hundred and eighty (180) day period the Chief Building Official shall issue a stay of the demolition permit issued and the municipality may abate all real property taxes for the subject property. At the conclusion of such [ninety (90)] one hundred and eighty (180) day period, the demolition permit shall become effective and the demolition may occur. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to mandate that the owner of such property is under any obligation to sell such property or building, structure or part thereof.

C. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this chapter, the Chief Building Official may impose a waiting period of not more than [ninety (90)] one hundred and eighty (180) days before granting any permit for the demolition of any building, structure or part thereof, in accordance with the provisions of §29-406(b) of the Connecticut General Statutes.

This ordinance shall take effect upon enactment.

Attest: Harry Day, Chair,
Land Use-Urban Redevelopment
Committee
Annia M. Summerville, Clerk.
