RESOLUTION NUMBER 3335 ADOPTING FEES FOR CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS FOR POLICE OFFICERS AND FIREFIGHTERS

WHEREAS, on June 5, 2000, the Board of Representatives adopted Ordinance No. 935 supplemental, amending Ordinance No. 774 supplemental Concerning Fees for Civil Service Examinations for Police Officer or Firefighter; and

WHEREAS, Ordinance No. 774 recited that the administrative costs of the examination process have greatly increased over the years; and

WHEREAS, the Ordinance further recited that it has been determined that it is in the best interest of the City that people who take a civil service examination should help to defray the cost of the process by paying an application fee; and

WHEREAS, Ordinance 935 provided that the Personnel Commission shall establish a schedule of fees no later than June 1 of each year, to be charged to applicants who wish to take a civil service examination for a Classified position of Police Officer or Firefighter with the City of Stamford; and

WHEREAS, the Personnel Commission established a schedule of fees at its April 2009 meeting which provides for a fee of thirty-five dollars ($35.00) for entry level police and fire fighter written examinations; and

WHEREAS, the Ordinance further provides that before any fee schedule may become effective it must first be approved by a Resolution of the Board of Representatives;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Representatives hereby approves the fee schedule adopted by the Personnel Commission and directs that all applicants for civil service examinations be charged a written examination fee of thirty-five dollars ($35.00) for entry level police and fire fighter examinations effective immediately.
